

Please, Please Please do NOT make any changes to the Do Not Call list laws. To lessen the restrictions will only allow those harrasing calls to interrupt family time, supper time, nap time, work and life in general. Creating the Do Not Call list is one of the best things to happen since the invention of the telephone.